ISSUP Newsletter: Issue 10

It's been a very busy month! One of the highlights of our month was the annual meeting of ISSUP's Board of Directors in Prague. Scroll down to read more about the meeting. While in Prague, Jeff Lee, ISSUP's Executive Director and Joanna Travis-Roberts, ISSUP's Deputy Executive Director, attended the International Consortium of Universities for Demand Reduction (ICUDDR) Conference. ISSUP also took part in the Technical Consultation on Updating UNODC's Prevention Standards in Vienna. And ISSUP was invited to present at the World Health Organization \(WHO\) Forum on Alcohol, Drugs and Addictive Behaviours in Geneva.

This week's newsletter includes a short summary of the 2017 World Drug Report. This edition also features the latest WHO World Health Statistics Publication, which provides data on 21 health-related Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) targets. In line with the report, we would like to ask you how your work (or your organisation's work) ensures healthy lives and promotes well-being. Head over to our Forum and share away!

Visit our website for more of the latest information from the fields of drug prevention and treatment. If there's anything else you'd like to read about in our newsletter or see on our website, feel free to send us an email at info@issup.net.
