As 2021 draws to a close we wanted to say a big thank you to our members, international partners, friends and readers for supporting ISSUP. You have helped us reach a huge variety of people from all around the world, including busy front-line workers and those continuing to provide vital substance use prevention, treatment and recovery support services to vulnerable populations during the pandemic.

Wishing you and your loved one's good health, happiness, peace and a great start to the New Year.
