Improving education through UTC Self Led Courses

Developing a more educated workforce of professionals in the field of substance use disorder treatment is a critical goal. All over the world individuals are signing up to learn how to be better professionals by pursuing self-improvement and certification through online learning.

The project to create Universal Treatment Curriculum (UTC) Self-Led courses began in 2018 but the arrival of the COVID-19 pandemic accelerated the need for online learning, and we have met that challenge. Learn more about this ground-breaking project in a guest article from the Global Centre for Credentialing and Certification (GCCC), here: ISSUP
